An Interview with Graham Wiseman
Certified LifeLine Technique™ Practitioner

By Jennifer Clark

I love hanging out with smart people. They are always engaging, make you think and encourage you to grow. Graham Wiseman is just one such person. I first met Graham socially at a healing workshop several years ago. I remember then he was really open for a professional guy and it impressed me that he could think outside the box. Prior to making the transition into healing, Graham was an accomplished project manager, consultant, software developer, coach and facilitator – having spent more than 25 years in the high tech and public sectors, both in Canada and the UK. Today, Graham has taken on his healing quest professionally and has blown away virtually all concepts of limitation in his “Mastery Unlimited” practice. Having studied Reiki, Quantum-Touch, NLP, Life Coaching, CranioSacral Therapy and the LifeLine Technique™, Graham acts like a Super Coach to help you get your “superpowers” back.

At one point in Graham’s journey, he felt he was going around in circles, stuck repeating the same patterns over and over. No matter what he did he couldn’t break free. A healing practitioner introduced him to the LifeLine Technique™ developed by Dr. Darren Weissman. The LifeLine Technique™ builds upon the work of Dr. Masaru Emoto, Dr. Candace Pert, Dr. Bruce Lipton, as well as many others. Dr. Weissman studied Chiropractic, Chinese Medicine, Acupuncture, Ayurvedic Medicine, and NLP in search of something more. He had an awakening to a healing process that has now become known internationally as The LifeLine Technique™. The philosophy of The LifeLine Technique™ is that ALL symptoms are the result of a denial, internalization or disconnection from some emotional experience on the subconscious level. The most powerful aspect of The LifeLine Technique™ is in the actual treatment. The combination of the spoken words “Infinite Love and Gratitude” and the international sign language gesture for “I Love You” is the only treatment. Dr. Weissman’s website www.infiniteloveandgratitude.com contains video showing live blood cell analysis of before and after a LifeLine treatment session. They are amazing to watch. I’ve personally had LifeLine treatments and get them as often as I can. My body likes it and I feel empowered afterwards. I have also had the pleasure of interviewing Dr. Darren Weissman for my radio show “The Namaste Show” some time ago. Please visit www.jenniferclark.radio to listen to the archived interview. I was extremely pleased to find out Graham became a certified practitioner here in Ottawa, bringing this wonder-filled work to our community. Not only did it fit with what Graham was doing in his personal life, but it was also a perfect process to add to Graham’s extensive tools for change. Graham describes his experience with LifeLine:

“Imagine that when you’re born, you’re given a huge backpack to carry. As you go through life, you unknowingly acquire baggage of various shapes and sizes to carry. Each of these “bags” are labeled “Anger” or “Resentment” or “Frustration” and so on. Most of the time, you don’t notice the increasing weight of this baggage because you’re so used to carrying it around. Suddenly, when you want to move in a new direction, the weight of your backpack can almost take you off your feet and you stagger under its weight. The LifeLine Technique™ has given me the opportunity to reach into my backpack and pull out some of these “bags” and release them with love and gratitude. My backpack has become lighter. I have become stronger, more alive and in love with life itself. I am now reaching heights I could never have reached before.”

I recently referred one of my new clients to Graham. In my consultation with her, she complained of severe and chronic back pain, so bad that she was scheduled for back surgery in four months. When I intuitively connected to her higher self, I “saw” that the problem was energetic and could easily be healed and that she should postpone surgery. Graham’s face “popped” up in my view finder as her healing helper. I relayed the information to my client. She was relieved to find that she had the power to change her situation and she may not have to proceed with surgery. I asked her to commit to a series of sessions with Graham to see where and how far he could take her. After researching Graham, she agreed to proceed forward. After only one session with Graham, she felt an immediate and noticeable difference in her body. After two sessions, her chronic pain went from a “9” on a scale of 1 to 10 down to a “1”! She continues to happily work with Graham on her quest for optimum health. She is re-visiting with her doctor to see if the surgery is now necessary and sent me a thank you email. Dear reader, this is why I wanted to share with you the powerful work of the LifeLine Technique™ and the fourth Wiseman, Ottawa’s own Graham Wiseman. It sure does pay to hang out with smart people!
